DISTRICT MAGISTRATE, AJMER- MERWARA

ORDER

Ajmer, the 11th January 1948

Whereas it appears that the inhabitants of certain localities in Ajmer City (mentioned in the attached list) are concerned in or abetting the commission of offences prejudicially affecting the public safety and the maintenance of public order, therefore, in exercise of the powers under Ordinance No. XX of 1942, it is hereby directed that a collective fine of, Rs. 75,000]—(Rupees seventy five thousand) is imposed on the inhabitants of that area.

The imposition of the collective fine as aforesaid shall be made known by loud-speaker as well as by publication in the Official Gazette.

The classes of persons exempt from the above order are Muslims, Government servants and those who are certified by the District Magistrate to be in indigent circumstances or those who may be exempted on the ground of having rendered useful services during the disturbances.

The District Magistrate will apportion the fine among the inhabitants who are liable to pay it and such apportionment shall be made according to his judgment on the respective means of such inhabitants.

The portion of such fine payable by any person shall be recovered under Section 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and necessary warrants to that effect may be issued by the Magistrate concerned.

List of localities on which a collective fine of Rs. 75,000/- has been imposed on 11th January, 1948.

No. F. 3(35)47-R.&J.—The following is published for information :—

East Punjab High Court at Simla.
No. 13 G.XII.2-10, dated the 5th December, 1947.

In supersession of the instructions contained in paragraph 5 (as renumbered) of Chapter 1-A, High Court Rules and Orders, Volume III, the Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges of the East Punjab High Court, with the previous approval of the Government of India in respect of Delhi Province, are pleased to issue the following instructions which are published for general information :—

"Witnesses should not be produced on the date of the presentation of the Chalan but should be bound over by the police under section 170 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to appear three or four days later. In order to ensure that the Magistrate will be able to hear the case on the date for which the witnesses have been bound over by the police, such date, wherever possible, should be fixed after consultation with the Court. Where, however, the difficulty of communications renders such consultation impossible in each individual case, the Court should allot fixed days in the week for the examination of witnesses, from a particular Police Station. If a case cannot be heard on the date fixed, the shortest possible adjournment should be granted. A convenient method of ensuring it would be four Courts to leave one or two days each week blank in order to catch up with arrears.

These instructions do not, however, apply to cases the trial of which should be completed forthwith and should not be delayed even for three or four days, as, for instance, the case of a pick pocket caught red-handed in a fair."

By order of the Chief Justice and Judges,

RANJIT RAI,
Registrar.

By order,
